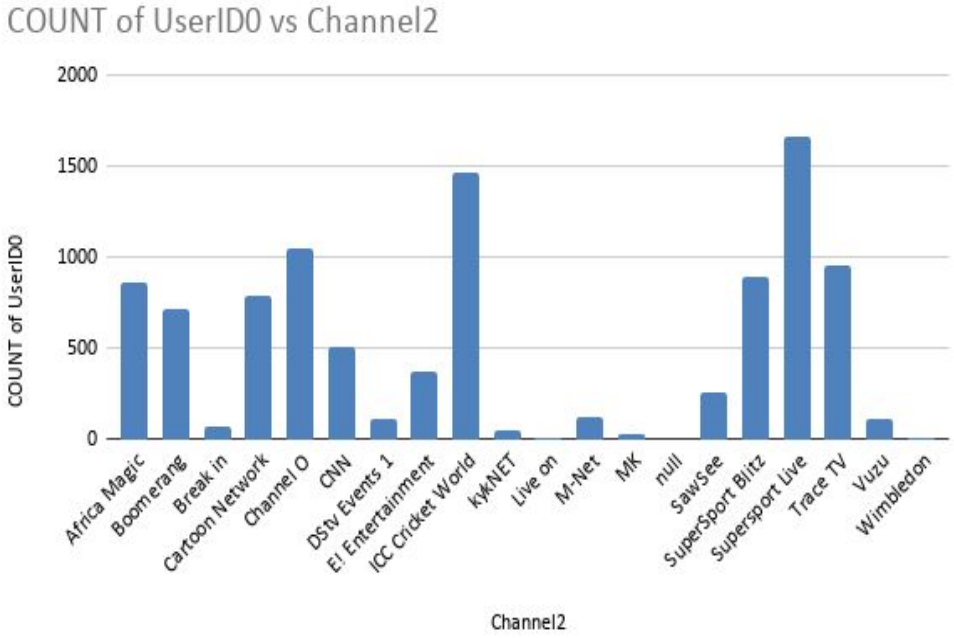
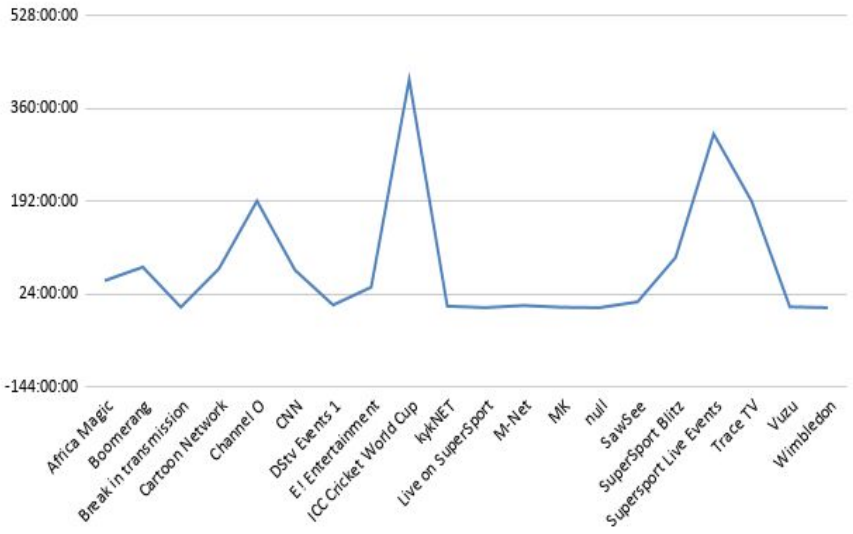
Bright TV Viewership Analysis

Viewership Per Channel

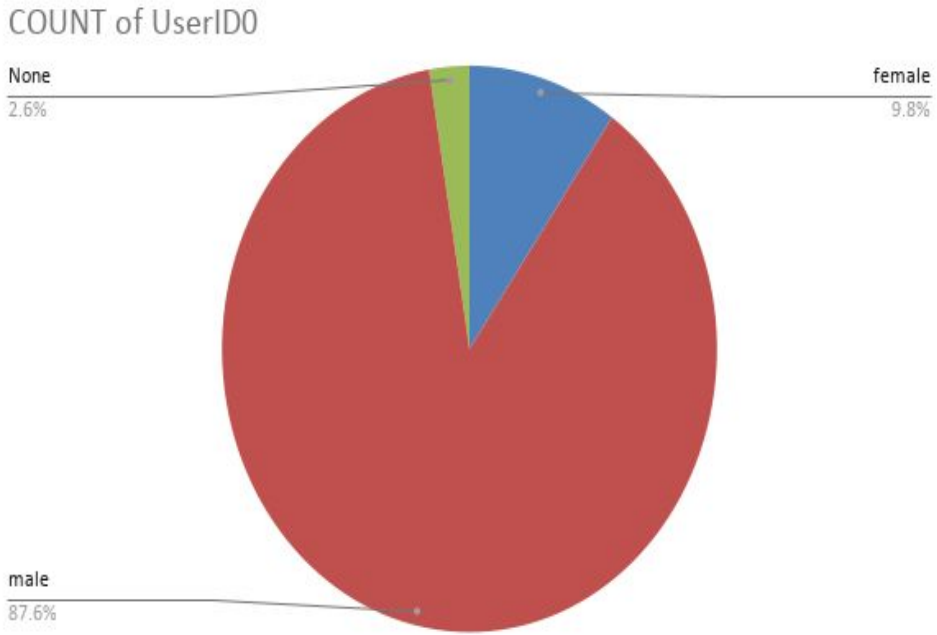
Supersport Live had the most amount of viewers, but E! Entertainment had the most duration time

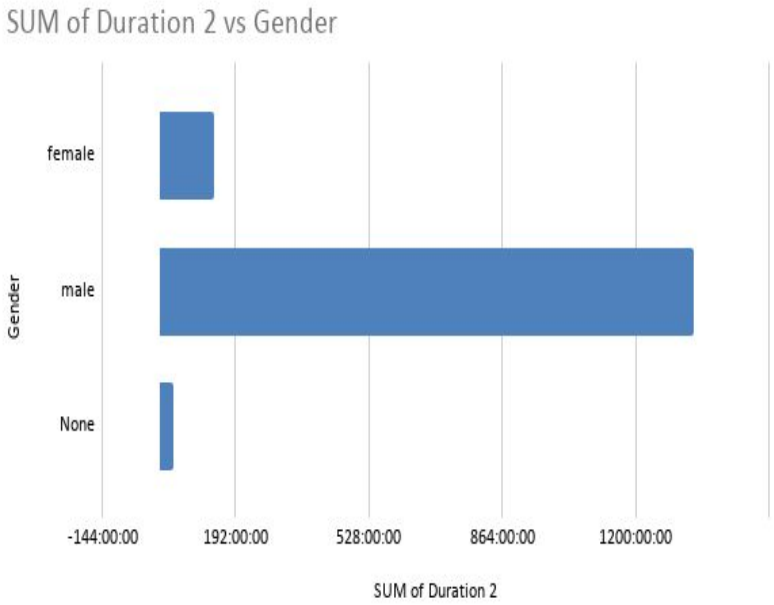




Viewership vs Gender

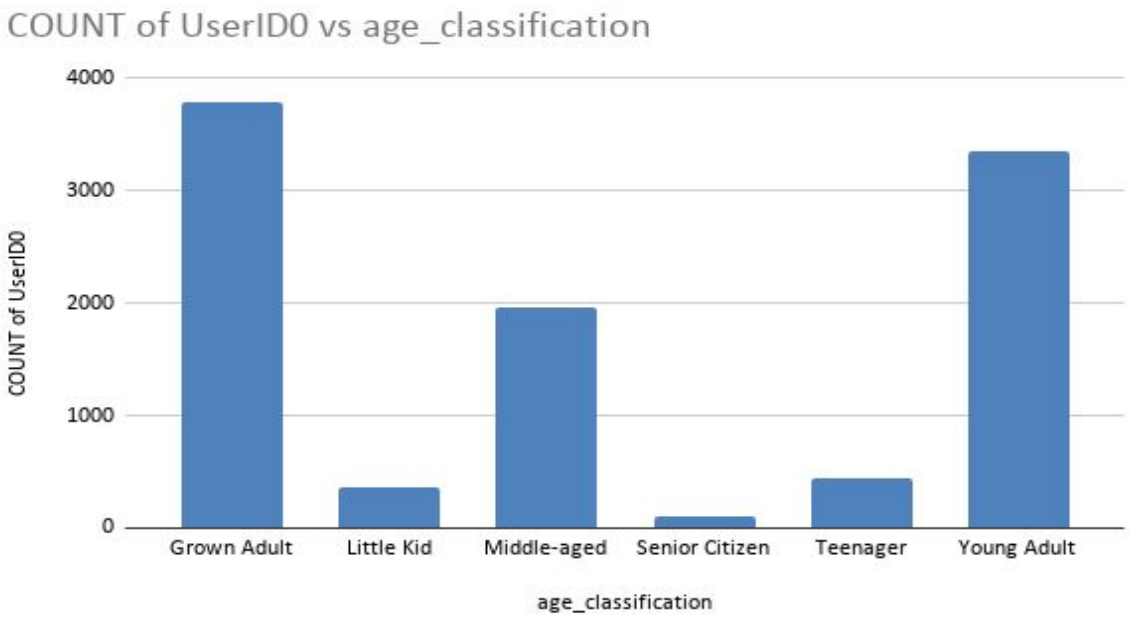
Bright TV has male-dominated viewers, the males also have the highest duration time





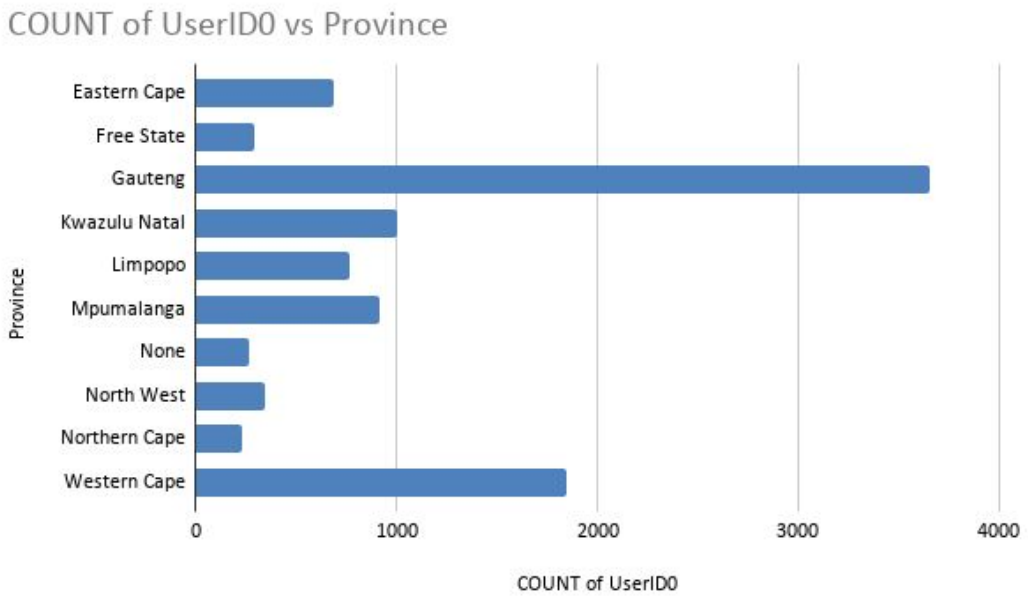
Viewership Per Age Classification

Our audience is mostly grown adults between 30 and 40 years, followed by young adults between 20 and 29 years.



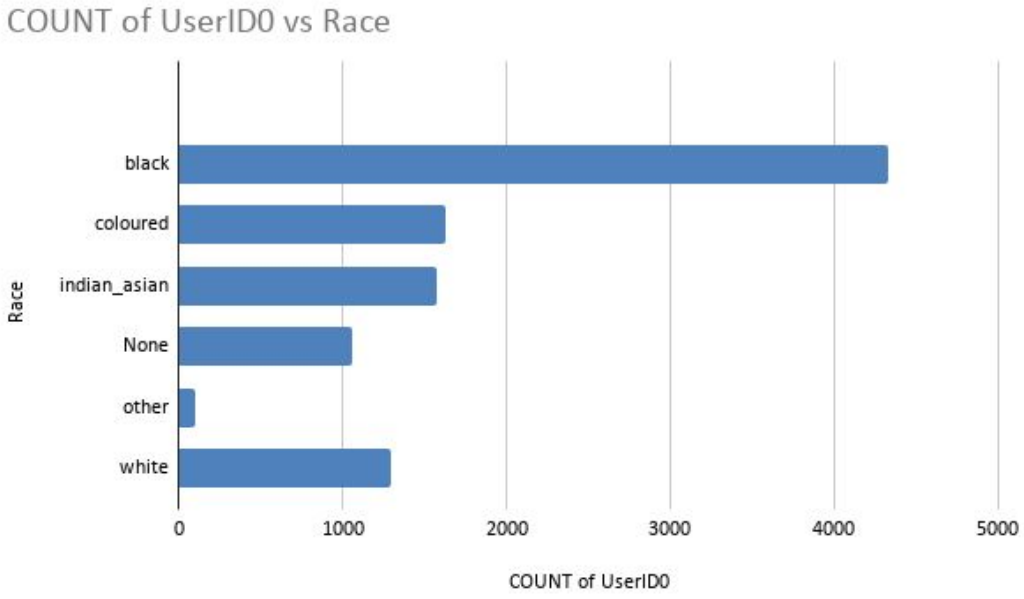
Viewership Per Province

We get the most of our views from Gauteng. Northern Cape has the least amount of viewers.



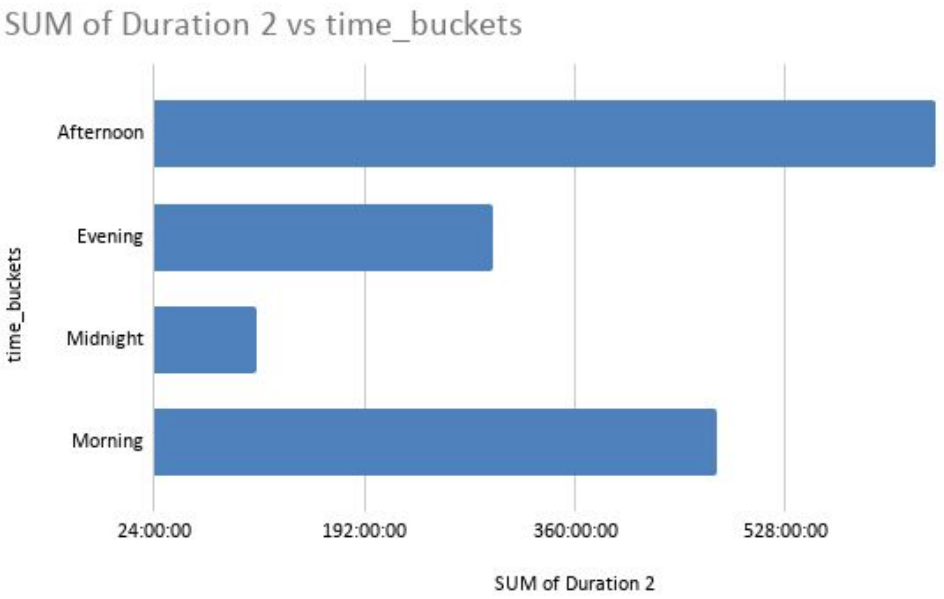
Viewership Per Race

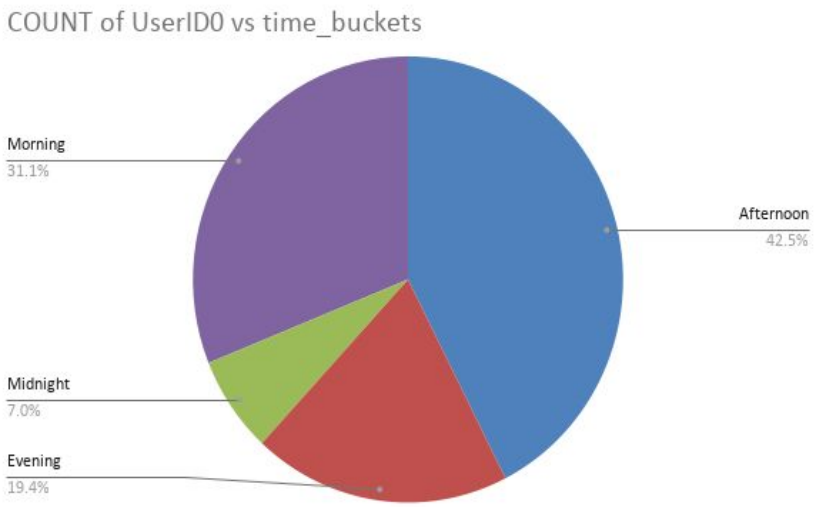
Black people have been our dominating audience



Viewership Per Time Bucket

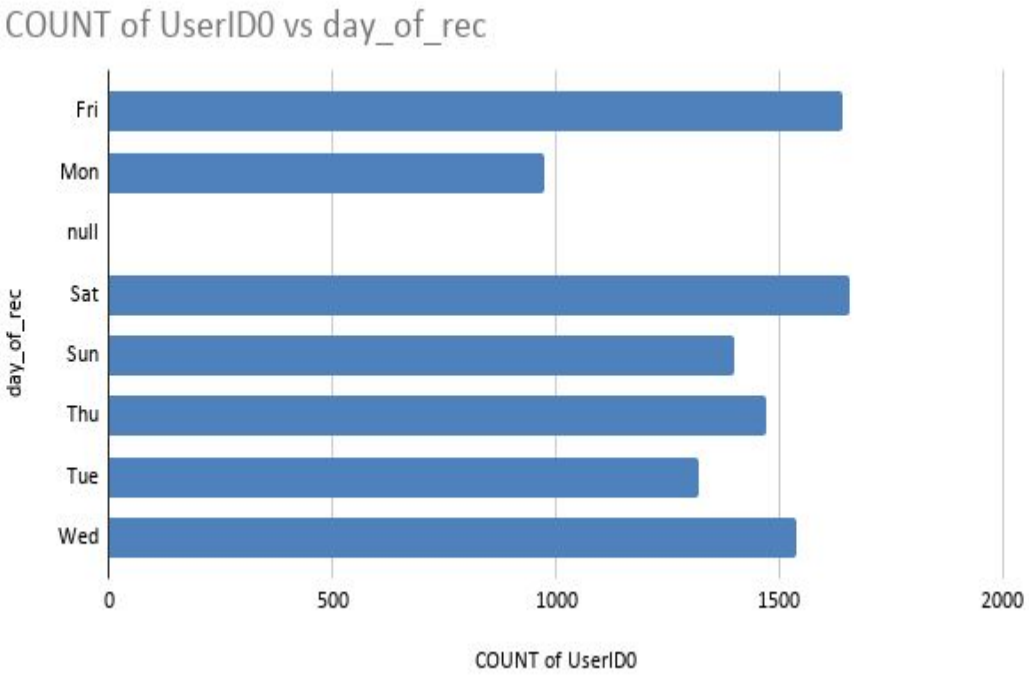
We get most of our views as well as the duration time during the afternoon. We get the least views during midnight

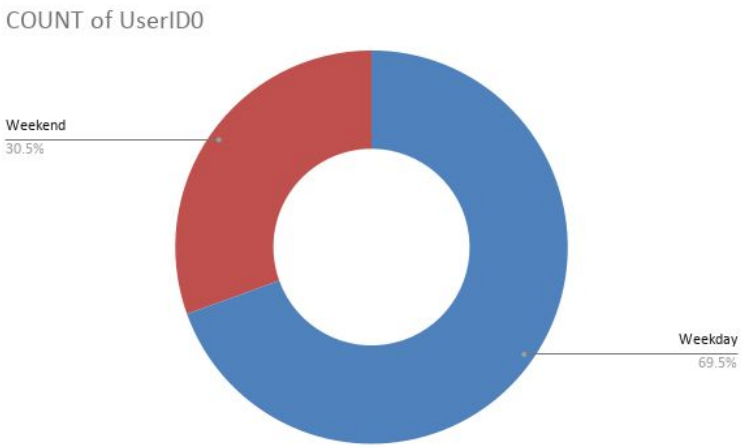




Viewership vs Days of the week

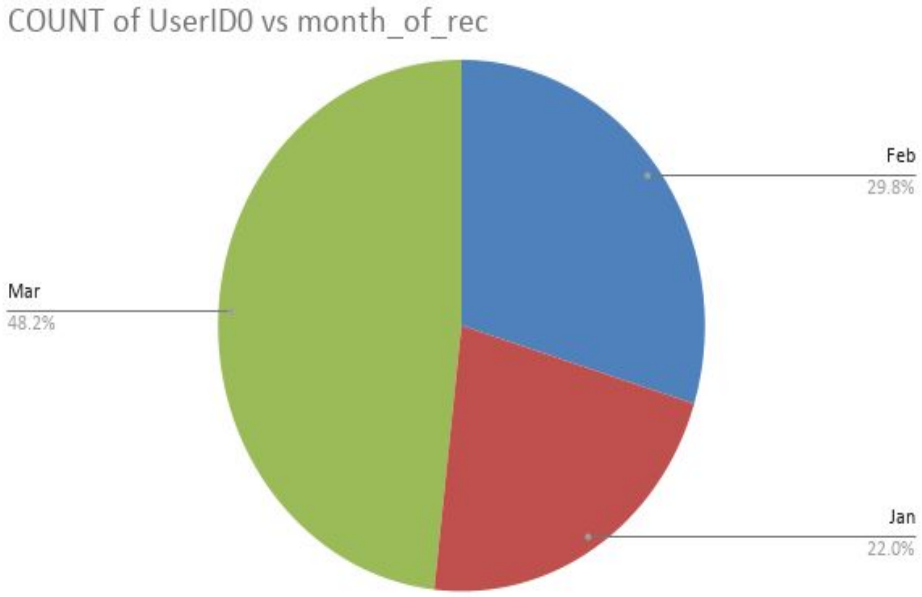
Whilst we get most of our views on Saturdays, the weekdays have more views than the weekend

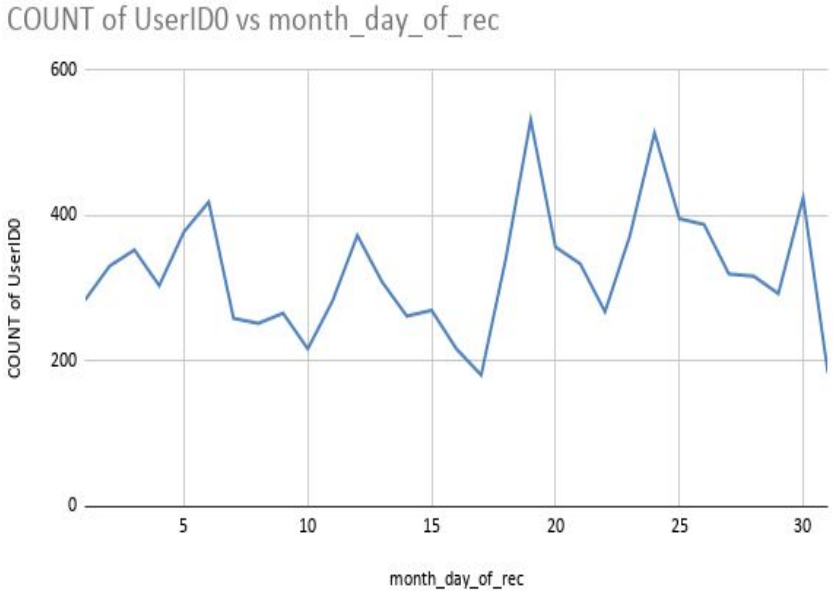




Viewership Per Month

The month with the most views was March and the day with most views is the 18th





Recommendations

- Leverage High-Performing Content
  Use sports (high viewership) to attract audiences and follow with entertainment content to increase watch time.
- Maximize Afternoon Slot
  Prioritize premium shows and advertising during peak afternoon hours to boost engagement and revenue.
- Target Core Audience While Expanding Reach
  Continue serving the dominant male (young adults and grown adults) audience, while introducing content for women and younger viewers to drive growth.
- Strengthen Weekday Programming
  Build consistent, episodic content during weekdays to encourage habitual viewing.
- Localize & Expand Geographically
  Focus on Gauteng with tailored content, while testing targeted strategies in underperforming provinces